and ordered to be printed

JOINT RESOLUTION

To strengthen the foreign relations of the United States by establishing a Commission on Governmental Use of International Telecommunications.

Whereas the overseas information program as carried on through the media of telecommunications is of continuing and increasing importance in carrying out and supporting the foreign policies of the United States; and

Whereas in his State of the Union message, February 2, 1953, the President asserted the necessity "to make more effective all activities related to international information": Therefore be it

- 1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
- 2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 That there is hereby established a commission to be known
- 4 as the Commission on Governmental Use of International

2 to administer such oaths, and to take such testimony, as the 3 Commission or such subcommittee or member may deem 4 advisable. Subpenas shall be issued under the signature of 5 the Chairman of the Commission and shall be served by any 6 person designated by him.

7 (b) The Commission may authorize the Chairman or 8 the Vice Chairman to make the expenditures herein author-9 ized and such other expenditures as the Commission may 10 deem advisable: Provided, however, That when the Com-11 mission ceases its activities it shall submit to the Appropri-12 ations Committee of the Senate and the House of Repre-13 sentatives a statement of its fiscal transactions properly 14 audited by the Comptroller General of the United States.

15 (c) The Commission is authorized to secure from any 16 department, agency, or independent instrumentality of the 17 Government any information it deems necessary to carry 18 out its functions under this Act; and each such department, 19 agency, and instrumentality is authorized and directed to 20 furnish such information to the Commission, upon request 21 made by the Chairman or by the Vice Chairman when 22 acting as Chairman.

Passed the Senate July 23 (legislative day, July 6), 1953.
